

Press Release

The National Commission for Women has taken suo moto cognizance of the incident when a Dalit girl's limbs and nose were chopped with an axe when she dared to resist the four men who were trying to rape her. Dr. Girija Vyas, Chairperson, National Commission for Women expressed shock and said that this is such a heinous crime that the Government has to make sure that the laws are implemented in a proper manner. She further said the NCW has sought an action taken report from the police. She also said that there was no signs of justice being delivered to the victims. The police is not investigating properly and implicating innocent persons. She appealed to the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh that the administration under her should take steps to ensure that a safe environment is provided to women.
