

Press Release

The National Commission for Women is celebrating the centenary of International Women's Day, 2011 on 11th March, 2011. The theme of the centenary celebration is "Access to Justice".

At this event, the Commission proposes to sign the following Memorandum of understanding with different NGO's and Delhi Police in achieving the goals.

1. Setting up of Special Police Units for Women & Children in all districts of Delhi from 1.4.2011 and extension of existing MOU under the project "Save the Home, Save the Family" from March, 2011 to March, 2012.
2. Access for redressal of complaints and participation in legal awareness and training of general public as well as faculty support with India Vision Foundation (IVF).
3. Advocacy on Effective Implementation of Women Friendly Laws with Women Power Connect (WPC).