

PRESS RELEASE

Dated: 20th December, 2012

National Commission for Women organised a consultation on the Reviewing the Strategies to improve the provisions of PC&PNDT Act today. The deliberations of the meeting were technical in nature and took stock of the law and its lacunae and the loop holes in implementing the PC&PNDT Act. The strategies to improve the provisions of PC&PNDT Act and improving child sex ratio, reviewing the state initiatives were discussed in the consultation.

The National Consultation was attended by representatives of State Governments, Chairpersons, Members of State Women Commissions, other National Commissions, central government, NGOs, experts, academics and other professionals in the field.