

PRESS STATEMENT

Date 29th December, 2012

The rape victim who succumbed to her fatal injuries is a martyr in the name of women safety. The National Commission for Women pays tribute to her and she fought till end. We all have to get together i.e. the civil society members and the Government which will provide directions to amend the existing sexual assault laws and it will also make sure neither Nirbhaya nor Damini will be there in the future. At the same time, NCW appeals to the people to hold peaceful public gatherings to support the cause.
