

PRESS RELEASE

Date 31st December, 2012

National Commission for Women observed a Two minute silence to mark respect towards the deceased rape victim. Expressing regret in the incident, Smt. Mamta Sharma Honourable Chairperson said December 16th is a black day in the history of India. She said the fight of the victim will not go in vain National Commission for Women which is working for the women's security and safety and will undertake to examine for change in laws to protect women. NCW will also propose recommendations in amendments of rape laws wherever necessary.